

Doug Christie A life built on principle...

VANCOUVER. March 26, 2013.

The last of four memorial meetings sponsored by the Canadian Association for Free Expression across Canada took place here this evening. Friends, former clients, admirers and members of Doug Christie's Western Block party gathered to remember the Battling Barrister.

Cecilia "Sissy" von Dehn is a former nurse and midwife who, with a friend, several times passed out copies of Bill 48, the draconian legislation, brought in by the former NDP government, that sets up bubble zones around abortion clinics where no protests are allowed. "I felt no one knew what a bubble zone was. I distributed the law. We never discussed abortion. Apparently telling people what the law is in British Columbia is illegal. Our sign said: 'You are in a bubble zone, Read Bill 48,'" Mrs. von Dehn explained.

The Vancouver abortion clinic called the police and Mrs. von Dehn and her friend were arrested. She approached many law firms. "They were afraid of an unpopular case. I am grateful Doug Christie fought for another unpopular cause in my case," she added.

Another Doug Christie client, Terry Tremaine, spoke. Mr. Tremaine has been victimized by Richard Warman through a human rights complaint, a Criminal Code "hate law" complaint, three "contempt of court" complaints and a complaint to the University of Saskatchewan which resulted in the loss of his teaching position. "This whole country has become a bubble zone against free speech," he said.

"Doug Christie was my lawyer, but he was also my friend," Tremaine said. "I haven't been so affected by the death of anyone since the death of my own father in 1985," he added. "No only have I lost my lawyer, I have lost my dear friend."

Mr. Tremaine was teaching at Red Deer College in 1983 while the James Keegstra "hate law" case was in progress. A student whose father had been Mr. Keegstra's principal invited him to attend court one day. This was the first occasion Mr. Tremaine saw the Battling Barrister.

James Keegstra was testifying. Mr. Tremaine had been prepared to see a monster from hyperventilating stories in the press. "But James Keegstra didn't have horns. He was a sincere and thoughtful person and he started me off on a course of research that continues to this day."

"Doug Christie's life was built on principle. He was devoted to freedom of speech and fought against people being fed into an unjust system."

"Doug Christie's life was based on principle and he would withstand the rejection of lesser men. He was not swayed by the opinions of insignificant men. Doug was a hero for freedom," he concluded.

In his wrap-up, CAFE Director Paul Fromm reminded the audience that Doug Christie often said: The only freedoms you have are the ones you're prepared to fight for."

"We have had thirty years of Trudeau's lying Charter. He hijacked our Anglo-Saxon Common Law and replaced it with continental Napoleonic Law, where the state stingily doles out 'rights' to the serfs. The Charter, despite the apparent guarantees of freedom of speech, freedom of belief, and freedom of religion is a fraud. We are far less free today, in terms of free speech, than we were before the Charter," Mr. Fromm said.

"In the Whatcott decision, traditional Christians have just had the boots put to them by a Supreme Court panel of six who included three Jews, who, and we're not supposed to notice this fact, constitute less than one percent of the population. Made up rights, like self actualization and satisfaction for privileged minorities, have trumped freedom of speech for Christians. These are hard times."

"Doug Christie helped hold back the censors' onslaught. He got the archaic 'false news' law thrown out at the Zundel trial and developed many challenges to the hate law which have not been adjudicated. He achieved the acquittal of Chief David Ahenakew and the staying of charges against Terry Tremaine in hate law cases. We must carry on with his work," Mr. Fromm pledged.

RamZPaul joins me to talk about stuff. He's a truth re-distributor who uses satire to make his point. Does being a white male automatically make you a racist? Does being white make you a racist? Are you privileged because you are white? Cultural Marxists think so. I don't. You can find his videos here www.ramzpaul.com

Monday September 17th Paul Fromm You are Censored!!!

Monday September 17th

Paul Fromm free speech activist joins me to discuss the pretend "free speech" in Canada, America and elsewhere. He has been an advocate for the victims of the anti-free speech commies. His organization has stood up for and helped to defend many victims of the so-called Human Rights Tribunal. If you go to his website <http://cafe.nfshost.com/> you will find a list of some of the people his organization has tried to help. These anti-free speech commies claim anyone who opposes them is a hater. It would appear to me that the only hate happening is the hate they spew towards anyone who dares to have an opposing opinion.

We had some technical glitches for several minutes, but fortunately for us, Shaun who is the host of Two's Company, Three's Allowed, just happened to be available to pitch hit for me until I could get connected to the system. That's why they call it LIVE radio. Paul talked about censorship in Canada.

Monday August 27th Paul Fromm Calling all anti-?????

Monday August 27th

Paul Fromm from the organization called the Canadian Association for Free Expression which is dedicated to Free Speech, Immigration Reform, and Restoring Political Sanity joined me to discuss free speech. There isn't any to be found in Canada. Dare to speak your mind about a variety of topics and you'll find yourself charged with a violation of their hate speech laws and the Human Rights Tribunal will start to hunt you down. Their goal? Silence and destroy anyone who questions anything pertaining to “protected groups”. Human Rights Tribunals have nothing to do with maintaining rights and everything to do with denying rights. They are just more practitioners of Orwell’s doublespeak. Some of the victims of the Human Rights Tribunals “hate laws” that Paul’s organization has attempted to help can be found on his website http://cafe.nfshost.com/?page_id=4.

There are many commies in Canada. Who would have thunk it? All these years I thought Canada was just filled with all these peaceful live and let live kind of folks. Who knew?

“I do not agree with what you have to say, but I’ll defend to the death your right to say it.” –

Voltaire The commies in Canada don't believe in free speech.

And if we don't speak...

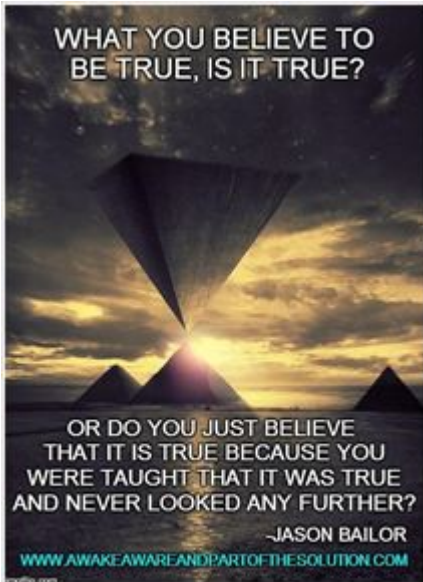

Thursday June 7th

Fearless freedom fighter Paul Fromm joins me again to discuss the lack of “free speech” that exists in Canada. Free speech in name only is what they have there and here too, very soon. Feel free to say what you think now before they claim you have no right to speak the truth. He discusses the plight of one free speaker who used his pen to “speak” his mind and ended up in jail for it. Is that what you want here in America? You will have only what you are willing to stand up and fight for.

Wednesday June 6th Del. Pat McDonough The color of racism...

Wednesday June 6th

Maryland Delegate Pat McDonough joins me for a quick cruise down "Truth Boulevard". He's called a racist by the mayor. Racism exists in Baltimore, but who are the real racists? We discuss the firestorm he created by mentioning the fact that black youths are “terrorizing” the community and committing many crimes in Baltimore.

“Some people say I should apologize,” McDonough said near the start of his two-hour weekly show Saturday night. “My parents brought me up and taught me one thing: You never apologize for the truth... I’m not going to apologize. I’ll tell you who needs to apologize: the mayor and the politicians who allowed this to happen – they need to apologize. They not only need to apologize, they need to fix it.”...

“...I want to tell you, it’s a very simple matter," he continued. "Either Baltimore city overcomes crime, or crime will overcome Baltimore city – and the city will no longer be livable at all. And it's very close to that situation in a lot of ways. This is not just a black issue. Yes, the gangs down there, the mobs, are black. I know we have knuckleheads and criminals that are white, but I'm trying to focus on this issue..."

http://articles.baltimoresun.com/2012-05-20/entertainment/bal-pat-mcdonough-mob-wcbm-weekend-show-20120520_1_public-safety-mobs-black-issue

He tells it like it is and we should all thank him for having the courage to speak the truth. Only the truth will set us free. He knows it. I know it. So why is it no one else in all of Maryland will stand beside him? Cowards.

update 8-2013

Delegate Pat McDonough is standing tall again. He fights for the rights of people to avoid becoming another victim.

In 2012, McDonough made headlines for not toning down his rhetoric, claiming Baltimore was being "terrorized" by " mobs of black youths ." He again pointed "youth mobs" in his statements made Thursday.

"Roving youth mobs in Baltimore's Harbor area and usually safe neighborhoods, like Little Italy, are becoming common place," he said.

Little Italy meanwhile is looking into hiring private security following a spate of assaults and robberies .

free speech matter?

February 7th Paul Fromm

Paul Fromm joins me to discuss free speech and the lack thereof. Is denying the unalienable right to free speech denying justice? Does free speech matter? His website is being revised so check back in a couple weeks, I will update this posting when his site is back up.

November 14th

My guest was Paul Fromm who is the Director of the Canadian Association of Free Expression. We discussed free speech and the lack thereof. The Canadian “Human Rights Tribunal” is great at denying “human rights” and similar free speech denying laws have been enacted in America as well. The “hate crimes” legislation denies you the right to speak freely. His website is www.canadafirst.com and he has a blog called Paul’s Café which can be found on www.whitenewsnow.com
