June 21st Fred Kelly Grant

<http://www.trademarkamerica.org/1.html>

Fred Kelly Grant JD joins me again to continue our discussion on property rights and how they are being assaulted everywhere you look by the enviro-commies trying to take your property from you. And it IS your property, not theirs. There is no “collective” here. You have an unalienable right to your property and the sooner the useful idiots wearing the uniform of the Globalists find that out, the better off they’ll be because I’m guessing eventually the patience of the American Patriot will run out.
